An Introduction from the Co-Headteachers

TO BRAMINGHAM PRIMARY SCHOOL

Bramingham Primary School is unique in many ways. We are a fully inclusive school, and our overriding aim is to meet the learning needs of all our children to the very best of our ability, where every individual, every achievement and every moment matters. All our staff are fully committed to this aim, and we are looking for a teacher who has a similar ethos and is ready to join our team.

The safety and wellbeing of our children is at the heart of all we do. Our children are encouraged to think as individuals, to question, to value mistakes as learning opportunities and to take a keen interest in the world in which they live. To this end, we are proud to ensure that our curriculum is broad and balanced, offering all children the chance to develop their learning across all areas, in the way that is most appropriate for them.

We have a resourced provision for children who have medical and/or physical needs. This enables many children to be part of our wonderful school while still receiving the specialist care that they need.

Children, parents, staff and governors all feel proud to be part of the Bramingham community. As a school, we are committed to working with families to support children in their lifelong learning and we hope that all visitors to the school feel welcome and inspired as they walk through our doors.

We hope that you are excited by what you have read and what you see when you visit. We look forward to reading your application.

Every individual, every achievement and every moment matters

Bramingham Primary is a unique school where every individual, every achievement and every moment matters.

We provide a happy, safe and caring environment that nurtures, inspires and celebrates individuality. We develop independent, self-confident, resilient and inquisitive learners who have high aspirations.

We have identified 6 steps that will enable our vision to be achieved

Values based Education

Our values underpin our school ethos curriculum. All adults model our positive universal values and children develop reflective practices to become ethically intelligent individuals.

High expectations

Doing the right thing all day, every day and taking great pride in what we do. Strive to be the best that we can be.

Curiosity and Challenge

Asking the right questions at the right time. Being curious about the world, taking risks and seeking the answers to increase our knowledge and understanding.

Aspiration to inspire

Aim high and believe that you can achieve.

Relationships

Build meaningful, positive relationships. Be able to communicate effectively and work collaboratively. To show care, kindness and understanding.

Resilience

Never giving up when faced with a challenge. Show perseverance and determination, in order to become independent life-long learners.

OUR CHILDREN

OUR PLAN

FOR THE NEXT YEAR

Increase the number of children working at Age Related Expectations in core subject areas, by identifying the needs of individuals and groups and targeting these.

To further develop and embed our Value-Based Education – linking with other areas of the curriculum.
To offer a wider range of extra-curricular activities.

For children to have greater opportunity to write at length across the curriculum and improve the quality of writing across the school.

Ensure children acquire a wide vocabulary and can communicate effectively in a range of contexts.

Ensure careful planning of Early Years provision and targeted support in order to ensure the GLD measure is above national by the end of Reception.

Every individual, every achievement and every moment matters
