

History at Bramingham – Long Term Overview

Core Skills		Autumn 1		Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
	EYFS	David Attenborough Animals			Understanding history What is my history?		Objects through time How are my families toy different to mine?
 	Year 1	Neil Armstrong space		Local History What is my history and the history of Bramingham?		Objects through time How do objects help us understand the past?		Stuarts 1605 – James I Was Guy Fawkes a villain or a victim? Who was Guy Fawkes?
	Year 2	Joan of Arc Invasions	Great fire of London Was the Great Fire of London caused by one spark, or many mistakes?		Seacole and Nightingale, Crimea's Boldest Women: Nurses, Heroes, or Rebels? How did Mary Seacole and Florence Nightingale make a difference?		Castles and monarchs Were castles built for protection or power?
 	Year 3	Alan Turing? Inventions and discovery		Stone Age How did life in Britain change from the Stone Age to the Iron Age?		History of Luton How did Luton grow from early settlers into the town we know today?		Romans Were the Romans successful in Britain because of their army, or because of their culture and ideas?
	Year 4	William Shakespeare literature	Mayas If we decode the Maya's writing, numbers, and buildings, what can we learn about their world?		Egyptians What made the Ancient Egyptians so powerful?		Invaders and Settlers Who were the Anglo-Saxons – ruthless warriors, clever settlers, or something else?
 	Year 5	Emiline Pankhurst rights		Victorians What was it really like to live in Queen Victoria's Britain – would you want to swap places?		Vikings Did the Vikings deserve their Fearsome reputation?		Beyond face value Can we ever know the whole truth about the past?
	Year 6	Oliver Cromwell Leader who changed Britain	Greeks What do Ancient Greek artefacts reveal about their lives?		WW2 Was WWII won by famous leaders and generals, or by the everyday courage of evacuees, workers and families?		Crime and Punishment Were punishments in the past more about revenge, or about justice?

Every individual, every achievement and every moment matters.