

English

During our Talk for Writing lessons, the children will be learning about a character flaw through the story-Why the Elephant Has a Trunk.

Followed by another non-fiction text: Recount of Whipsnade Zoo visit

Science

Children will learn about animals including humans. They will identify and name a variety of common animals including fish, amphibians, reptiles, birds and mammals. They will identify and name carnivores, herbivores and omnivores - describe and compare the structure of a variety of common animals

Maths

The children will be using their number knowledge to support them in multiplication, division and fractions.

They will also learn about position and direction.

Year 1 – Summer 1 How are animals the same and different?

Music

Children will be learning to use their imagination.

They will Learn melody with notes E G A, listen and clap back, use voices and instruments, listen and sing back. They will compose using up to five notes C D E F + G

Computing

The children will be learning to programme animations. They will understand what algorithms are, how they are implemented as programs on digital devices and that programs execute by following precise instructions.

PSHE

The children will learn about how can we look after each other and the world. They will learn about living in the wider world, ourselves and others, the world around us, caring for others and growing and changing

Art

Children will learn about collage (including digital). They will produce a portrait collage by layering materials. They will explore the use of layering materials and using different media to produce a portrait collage.

Artists: Henri Matisse and Paul Klee

History

The children will be learning about the lives of significant individuals; Christopher Columbus, Rosa Parks, Emily Davidson, who have contributed to national and international achievements.

RE

Children will be learning about Islam. Within the topic, children will learn who is a Muslim, what they believe and how they live.

PE

During their indoor PE lessons, children will be learning how to control their breathing and develop their core control. During their outdoor PE lessons, children will learn about different athletic events whilst continuing to develop their hopping, running, jumping and throwing skills.

Every individual, every achievement and every moment matters.